Discussions between Northampton Borough Council and the town's sports clubs on the future of the grounds began this week

Police revealed there have been 200 reports of sightings of their main suspect in the murder of a family of four in Wootton

The Tories won outright control of Northampton Borough Council for the first time in almost a quarter of a century in the local elections

Suspect is UK's 'most wanted'

ANXIANG DU, the man being hunted for the brutal murder of a family-of-four from Wootton, has now been listed as the most wanted man in the UK.

Mr Du is being sought by police on suspicion of stabbing to death Manchester Metropolitan University lecturer Jifeng 'Jeff' Ding, his wife and teacher Helen Chui, and their two popular children Xing, aged 18, and Alice aged 12, at their home in Pioneer Close, Simpson Manor, on Friday, April 29, the day of the Royal Wedding.

The Chinese businessman, who police believe travelled from his home in Coventry, via his shop in Birmingham, to Northampton, has now been listed on the Crimestoppers website as the most wanted man in the UK.

A mugshot of Mr Du has been uploaded onto the website, along with a description of the 52-year-old and a rundown of the shocking killings he is accused of clinically carrying out.

A spokesman for Crimestoppers said anyone who gave information to the charity that leads to a successful arrest and conviction of the killer could be in line for a cash reward.

Meanwhile, police said they have now been able to trace family members of the Dings in China and

America following their horrific killings.

They are not believed to have other family in the UK.

The family are thought to have been targeted by Mr Du after a bitter fall-out over a number of businesses they ran together.

Mr Du and Helen Chui, who was also a part-time Mandarin tutor at Caroline Chisholm School, had run a Chinese herbal shop together in St Peter's Walk, off Gold Street, in Northampton, and in Birmingham, where police found a note from Mr Du saying "goodbye" to his family before the Dings were killed.

A police spokesman said they were in contact with relatives of the Dings through the Chinese embassy.

Officers meanwhile were still trying to trace a silver Vauxhall Corsa, thought to have been used by Mr Du to flee the scene.

Anyone with information about the murders or anyone who saw Mr Du can call Northamptonshire Police incident room on 0800 096 1011 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Hundreds at funeral of tourist killed in US

HUNDREDS of people travelled from across the globe to pay an emotional farewell to a former Northampton School for Boys pupil, with an "insatiable appetite for life", who was murdered while on holiday in Florida.

More than 500 mourners, from as far away as Australia and Argentina, crammed inside Moulton Parish Church and filled the neighbouring church centre on Tuesday for the funeral of James Kouzaris, aged 24, from Kingsthorpe.

The former Old Northamptonians rugby player had recently returned from a two-year trip around the world and was on a final holiday in Florida, along with his friend from the University of Sheffield, James Cooper, aged 25, when the pair were shot dead on April 16.

His coffin, which was decorated with a picture of a beach and had one of his trademark hats and his passport on top, was carried into church by some of his closest friends.

Among those who spoke during an incredibly moving, poignant and at times funny service, were Mr Kouzaris' dad, Pete, some of his childhood friends from Northampton, as well as Mr Cooper's father, Stan.

Mr Cooper's father, Stan, also paid tribute to James, who he called "his second son".

A charity called Always A Chance has also been set-up in Mr Kouzaris's and Mr Cooper's names to help victims of violent crimes. For details visit www.alwaysachance.co.uk.

Tories sweep to election win

THE CONSERVATIVES swept to power in the local elections, defeating the Liberal Democrats who have been in charge of Northampton Borough Council for the past four years.

The Tories secured 26 of the council's 45 seats, compared to the Liberal Democrats who won just four.

The new leader of the council, Councillor David Palethorpe (Con, Billing) said the win was secured on the back of a manifesto which included pledges to work more closely with the Saints and Cobblers and introduce one hour free parking in Northampton town centre.

He added: "I'm extremely pleased with the result because I know everybody has worked so hard for it."

"It's 24 years since we had a Conservative council with a majority at the Guildhall, so I'm a little apprehensive, as you would expect, because we have a lot of promises to deliver, but we will deliver them."

The Liberal Democrats put many of their lost votes down to a national swing away from their party.

Their leader, Brian Hoare, who lost his own seat in Abington, said: "There's clearly a national factor come to play, but obviously we've got to look to see if there was also a local aspect we can learn from."

"But the borough council has been transformed in the past four years and I think some of that may not have been fully recognised by the public."

Labour also had a resurgence in the vote, securing the remaining 15 seats, making them the official opposition.

Appeal walk raises £11k

MORE than 250 people turned out at the annual Macmillan Walk in the Park, which marked 100 years of the charity.

The fund-raising event, held at Althorp, was this year opened by Northampton Saints rugby star Bruce Reihana, who saw off the walkers before their three-mile or six-mile efforts around the grounds.

This year, all proceeds from the sponsored walk, which hopes to raise at least £11,000, will go towards the Macmillan Cancer Support and Chronicle & Echo joint campaign to build new haematology unit for Northampton General Hospital.

Gary Shaeffer, who led the walk's organising committee, said: "It's an especially important walk this year because we are celebrating 100 years of Macmillan Cancer Support.

"We always get fantastic support from people in Northamptonshire, and in particular from residents in the local villages.

"It's an event that we always look forward to and this year all the money will go towards the joint campaign, so it's really exciting.

"We're really grateful to the support of Earl Spencer and the Althorp estate, as well as Bruce

Hundreds of walkers took part in the annual Walk In The Park event at Althorp to raise money for the campaign to raise £1.5m for a new cancer treatment unit at Northampton General Hospital

Reihana, who was genuinely pleased to be here supporting the walk."

Bruce Reihana, who played his last home game for the Saints on Saturday before an expected move to France, lost his brother Steve to cancer.

He said: "I'm really pleased that I could support the walk. Everyone in Northampton has always been really generous in their support to me so I'm glad I could give something back.

"My brother died from cancer so I have a personally attachment to the fantastic work that charities like this do."

Hunt's car on sale

Submitted picture

THE car that took legendary Formula 1 driver James Hunt to his first grand prix victory is expected to fetch up to £500,000 when it is auctioned off at Silverstone this summer.

The celebrated white Hesketh Chassis 308/2, with red and blue stripes and famous teddy bear logo, won Hesketh Racing its first and only win at the 1975 Dutch Grand Prix in Zandvoort, becoming the last privately-entered car to win a grand prix without commercial sponsorship. With 23 grand prix starts, 17 of which were driven by Hunt, the car was the most prolifically raced of Hesketh's cars, and remained in team principal Lord Hesketh's private collection at his estate in Towcester until 2007.

Having raced at the Goodwood Festival of Speed and Revival events and Formula 1 Historic races in recent years, the car will now be sold at Silverstone Auctions' sale during the Silverstone Classic weekend at the circuit on Saturday, July 23, where it is expected to fetch up to £500,000.

Fully race-prepared and returned to its original colours, the car is newly crack-tested and ready to race, and comes with a large spares package, including the custom-made original steering wheel used only by Hunt himself.

With its Ford-Cosworth DFV V8 engine and Hewland gearbox the Chassis 308/2 made its debut at the Spanish Grand Prix in April 1974, achieving its first podium at the Swedish Grand Prix in June, coming in third, and two further third places before its first victory later that year.

Who tops county's rich list?

CE library pictures

THE wealthiest men and women in Northamptonshire have been revealed in the annual Sunday Times Rich List 2011.

The Sunday newspaper published the list of the richest 1,000 people in Britain yesterday.

In first place in the county was businessman David Wilson, who founded homebuilders Wilson Bowden, and was its chairman and chief executive, despite a £15m drop in his fortunes.

Mr Wilson and his family dropped to number 221 on the list, down from number 179 last year, with an estimated wealth of £360million.

Next highest to represent Northamptonshire was the Duke of Buccleuch and family, whose family home is Boughton House, near Kettering. Thought to be the largest private landowner in Britain, the Duke, Richard Scott, saw his wealth stabilise for another year at £180 million, falling 27 places to 381 on the list.

Other millionaires included Alan and Wendy English, who started their hotel empire in Northampton in the 1980s. The couple were placed jointly at 457th with their fortune of £50 million.

Earl Spencer, who last year sold £21 million worth of art to fund repairs at Althorp House, slipped 100 places to 674th on the list. The land and art owner, aged 46, is estimated to be worth £109 million.

This year's list also saw the return of Northamptonshire residents Sir Richard George, previous owner of Weetabix, and Tony Travis, owner of builders' merchant Travis Perkins.

Both were listed jointly as number 518 on the list with an estimated wealth of £135 million.

Man arrested over fire spree

A MAN has been arrested on suspicion of starting eight fires on a Northampton housing estate.

The Lings area of east Northampton was hit by a series of arson attacks in the space of six hours between last Thursday night and the early hours of Friday. Residents described being scared by the potential impact of the fires – some of which were started near to gas pipes on the estate.

Bukola Awolaja lives in Tyes Court with her husband and children – aged 18, 14 and three. Her wheelie bin and recycling boxes were set on fire at about 3.15am on Friday, and firefighters had to battle to keep flames away from the gas pipe supplying the house. Wheelie bins outside a second house in the street were also targeted.

She said: “I’m just tired of this. This is the second time this has happened to us and I can’t understand why we are being targeted. It’s so scary, especially when you have children in the house.”

Her neighbours Nina Davies and Warren Stokes were woken by a strange noise and found firemen outside their door.

Nina said: “Every one of these houses has children aged under three. I have a six-week-old baby and there are two little ones at the end, and my neighbour’s three-year-old. It’s so scary to think what could have happened. “None of us knew what was going on. A woman who lives behind us saw the flames when she came out for a cigarette and reported it.

Some of the damage caused during arson attacks across the Lings estate on Thursday night in Hayeswood Road, West Priors Court, South Priors Court, South Paddock Court and Tyes Court

“If the fires had got out of control and spread they could have blown up all six houses. We could all be dead and gas could have leaked into the street.

“It’s so scary to think of what could have happened from something so simple as setting fire to a bin.”

Rubbish, wheelie bins, trees and fencing were set on fire in a series of small-scale arson attacks in Hayeswood Road, West Priors Court, South Priors Court, South Paddock Court and Tyes Court between 10.40pm last Thursday and 4.20am on Friday.

Police said yesterday they had arrested and questioned a 22-year-old local man in connection with the fires, and that he had been released on police bail.

A spokeswoman said the force was not looking for anyone else in connection with the fires, which are all being linked.

Bid to clear mess on A45

CRIMINALS will help to clean up a slip road into the town that has been blighted by flytipping.

An environment warden from Northampton Borough Council has organised the clean up operation on the A45 leading to Crow Lane in partnership with the Community Payback Unit of Northamptonshire Probation Trust on Monday.

Starting next week, offenders carrying out unpaid work will join the council's environmental team to clear away general litter, flytipping and cut back overgrown shrubs with the help of a 7.5 ton council truck to kart away the rubbish.

Call the flytipping hotline on 0300 330 7000.

Fundraiser sets off on bike

Ian Meredith starts his 18-day, 1,000-mile cycle challenge to raise money for the Chron's charity appeal

A CANCER survivor has set off on an 18-day, 1,000-mile challenge that will see him cycle from Lands End to John O'Groats in aid of an appeal by our sister paper, Chronicle & Echo.

Father-of-two Ian Meredith, of Hardingstone, was treated for Hodgkin's lymphoma at Northampton General Hospital during 2004 and 2005.

He was waved off on the start of his trip yesterday from the WG Grose garage in Queens Park Parade, Northampton, which has provided a support vehicle for his family to travel in during the challenge.

Sales manager John Moore said: "Ian contacted us and asked if he could borrow a vehicle for two weeks and we were happy to help. It's an admirable thing he's doing and we only hope he doesn't tire himself out too much and that he has some good weather for it. It's a fantastic fundraising event and for a good cause."

Ian will be joined on his trip by his family – wife Rachel, three-year-old son Lucas and one-year-old daughter Emily; his parents Mary and John; and in-laws John and Rita Hollowell.

Dave Connell says - "When Homesure originally opened in Milton Keynes in 1991, the objective was to provide a warm and welcoming way of doing straight forward business with local people. A few simple guidelines were set out to ensure that it was always a pleasure to do business with Homesure. No dubious sales techniques, false promises or underhand tactics, just straight forward good deals, a great product for a fair price. Those initial principals have not changed. Over 100 new customers a month from Milton Keynes, and the surrounding areas, now choose a brand of The Home Improvement Partnership, either Homesure, The Door Studio, Denverglaze, Simply Conservatories or MK Glass. Therefore, you are invited to have a FREE NO OBLIGATION QUOTATION in the comfort of your own home or online, or to visit our QUOTE CLINIC. Bring your window sizes, styles and maybe a photo to our showroom for on the spot advice, design and quotation. You can see for yourself our range of products and finishes. This makes it easier for you to avoid the minefield of wasted evenings and high pressure sales techniques." So we welcome you to pop in for a coffee and some good old fashioned friendly service"

Family 'lucky to escape'

A FIRE investigator has said a couple were lucky to escape a house blaze which totally destroyed their home.

The pair, who did not have smoke detectors fitted, had been downstairs when the fire broke out around 11.30pm last Wednesday in their end of terrace home in South Holme Court, Thorplands.

Residents in the street were evacuated for around two hours while three fire crews battled to bring the blaze under control. The flames were eventually contained to the one house.

But the three-bed home was 'completely gutted', according to firefighters, who said the ground floor, first floor and roof space were all destroyed.

Neighbour Bob Blaylock, aged 76, and his wife Laura were evacuated from their home with the rest of the street.

He said: "We were just going to bed when we heard an explosion which must have been a window blowing out."

"I couldn't believe it when I saw the flames coming out of the house, it was like the war days. It was shocking."

"We had to get out of the house and we huddled up with blankets and watched the firefighters tackle the flames."

Steve Stock, a fire investigator, was working at the scene yesterday and said: "The house is totally gutted, it was a very severe house fire and it is no longer safe to live in."

"Fortunately two adults were already out of the house when the firefighters arrived."

"It was a fully developed fire with flames coming out of the windows. The firefighters managed to stop it from spreading to adjacent buildings. There doesn't appear to be any smoke detectors fitted, so it was lucky that the couple were awake – which is not always the case."

"We are still finding out where and why it started."

The Red Cross Victim Support Unit attended the fire to support the couple who were made homeless, as well as evacuated residents.

Wendy Finucane, a nearby resident who looked after the couple during the fire, said: "They were hysterical, it was very upsetting."

"She told me that they were downstairs when they smelt something near the stairway."

"We're just really pleased that were both able to get out unharmed, that was the main thing."

Friends' tribute to Jamal

HUNDREDS of friends and family of a popular 16-year-old musician from Northampton who died last week gathered to set off Chinese lanterns in an emotional tribute to him.

Around 300 people gathered in Victoria Park, in St James, to send paper lanterns and balloons in to the sky to mark the death of Jamal Hibbert.

Jamal, of Far Cotton, died in Northampton General Hospital shortly before 1pm last Sunday after police officers and an ambulance were called to St Leonard's Court, Far Cotton, at 11.30am.

Jamal's mother, Celene Saxton, said it was the support of his friends that helped her to get through every hour since her son's death. She said: "I'm completely touched and amazed by all the people that turned up. It's very comforting to me, it's everyone here that gets me through each hour."

The event on Wednesday evening was set up via social networking site Facebook, with friends of the former Unity College pupil keen to pay their respects.

Jamal's brother, Tyrone Sax-ton, aged 18, said: "I'm glad everyone came tonight and I want to thank everyone for the support, it means a lot to my family."

"He always said he wanted to be famous so he would have enjoyed the attention tonight. He was a very talented person and loved to sing, rap and dance."

"I love my brother and there's not a minute I don't stop thinking about him."

Jamal, a keen MC who used the stage name Skimma, used to produce music with best friend Max Mozart, with the pair last performing at a club in Leicester just weeks ago.

Max, aged 17, said: "He was such a lovely down to earth guy who had a passion for music."

"Our last performance was our biggest, we planned to go into music together and take each other wherever we went," the teenager added.

Walker bitten by dog in park

A DOG walker was attacked by a Labrador as she walked her pets through Northampton racecourse.

The dog bit her leg and ripped her trousers as she walked her two Jack Russells near the Colwyn Road entrance of the park last Friday morning.

The owner of the Labrador, who was also walking a second Labrador, was described as white, Polish and around 50-years-old, with dyed blonde hair. She was between 5ft 4in and 5ft 6in in height and of fairly heavy build.

Smokey gets world record

Smokey looks like the cat that got the cream after being officially recognised for being the loudest on record.

Guinness World Records announced today that the 12-year-old female British short-hair cat achieved the loudest purr by a domestic cat, peaking at 67.7 dB.

Smokey's owner Ruth Adams, from Pitsford, near Northampton, said: "Smokey and I are very excited at being awarded the Guinness World Records title for the loudest purring domestic cat."

"We originally started a purring competition in Northampton to promote the cats charity Cats Protection."

"We wish to thank all those who have supported Smokey with her record attempt and especially wish to thank Northampton College for organising the trials and supplying the expertise I needed to comply with the technical aspects of a Guinness World Records claim.

"We are very happy and purring loudly at the announcement that we hold a Guinness World Records title."

Craig Glenday, editor-in-chief of Guinness World Records, said: "The book is a veritable cat-alogue of fantastic felines, and Smokey is a welcome addition to the family. It's incredible to think that a cat's purr can be as loud as a vacuum cleaner." Smokey, pictured below, still has a way to go to compete with the noisiest beasts in the animal kingdom.

The loudest animal sound is the low-frequency pulses made by blue whales and fin whales when communicating with each other.

These whales reach 188 dB on the decibel scale, creating the loudest sounds emitted by any living source. Total silence is 0 dB, a lawnmower 90 dB, a car horn 110 dB and a rock concert 120 dB.

Girl on a mission of revenge

OPPOSITES sometimes attract. Taiwanese director Ang Lee wasn't an obvious choice to direct Brokeback Mountain, an epic love story set in 1960s Wyoming, yet East met Wild West with dazzling results. Now, director Joe Wright (Pride and Prejudice, Atonement) tries his hand at the action genre with this fast-paced thriller about a girl with extraordinary powers. The London-born film-maker imprints his distinctive artistic vision on Seth Lochhead and David Farr's script.

He conjures a mood of impending doom as the conflicted characters traverse the globe before a climactic showdown that hammers home the fairytale allegory. However, aesthetic concerns occasionally get in the way of a jolly good romp and consequently, Hanna sits nervously between two distinctive audiences – arthouse and multiplex – and will disappoint both. Sixteen-year-old Hanna (Saoirse Ronan) lives in snowbound Scandinavia with her father Erik (Eric Bana), honing the fighting skills she will need for the perilous mission that lies ahead: to kill ruthless CIA agent Marissa Wiegler (Cate Blanchett). "She won't stop until you're dead or she is," warns Erik as his protégée improves her strength and speed, hunting local wildlife with her trusty bow. "So be sure," he adds, "because I won't be there to hold your hand." Once she is trained and primed for action, Hanna bids farewell to her father, whispering his mantra: "Adapt or die". She embarks on her quest to kill Wiegler with trained assassin Isaacs (Tom Hollander) and his henchmen on her trail. En route, Hanna meets hippie mother Rachel (Olivia Williams), her despairing husband Sebastian (Jason Flemyng) and their sassy teenage daughter, Sophie (Jessica Barden), who is at that difficult age when everything her parents say is wrong. Hanna plays out a Bourne Identity-style game of cat and mouse between the plucky teenager and her pursuers, including a breathless chase through a ship container yard that benefits from Paul Tothill's energetic editing. Wright cannot resist directorial flourishes so he shoots a sequence at Berlin airport in an apparently single take, reaching a crescendo with Erik brawling with four knife-wielding assailants. Ronan captures both the steeliness and vulnerability of her girl on the cusp of womanhood, while Blanchett relishes her role as the villainess with an oral hygiene fixation. Williams and Flemyng are poorly served, considering the amount of scene-time afforded their characters, while Barden, who was hysterical in Tamara Drewe, scene-steals merrily here too.

Hamlet! takes to the stage

THE latest production at Royal & Derngate will whisk theatregoers off to Denmark in a new production of an Edinburgh favourite. Hamlet! The Musical is the latest in the theatre's Made In Northampton season, which celebrates great British writers. In the hands of the adaptors, the tragedy has been re-invented as a joyous and critically-acclaimed comedy romp, winning the award for Audience Favourite Musical at Edinburgh. As co-production between Royal & Derngate and Eleanor Lloyd Productions, Hamlet! The Musical will enjoy its first large-scale staging, with Jack Shalloo reprising his role as the hapless Danish prince under the direction of Ryan McBryde. Venturing where other musicals fear to tread, with its foot-tapping first folio frolics, Hamlet! The Musical will entertain Shakespearean purists and novices alike. Hamlet! The Musical can be seen at Royal & Derngate until May 21, in advance of a national tour. Tickets are priced from £27 to £12, with concessions available. Tickets for under 26s cost £11 for all performances. For more information or to book, call the box office on 01604 624811 or visit www.royalandderngate.co.uk.

SPECIAL OFFER FOR OUR OVER 50s READERS

Over 50s life insurance.

A helping hand from just £5 a month...that's less than 17p a day.

A cash sum towards funeral costs
When you've spent all your life taking care of your family, the last thing you want is to leave them with financial worries. Have you thought about how your loved ones will pay for your funeral?

Legal and General's Over 50s Fixed Life Insurance Plan can help ease the financial burden on your loved ones at a very difficult time, by providing a cash sum towards funeral costs, outstanding bills or other debts. It's important to consider that the cash sum provided by the plan is fixed so its value may be reduced by inflation.

Aged 50 to 80 guaranteed acceptance

As long as you are aged between 50 to 80 and a UK resident, your acceptance is guaranteed. There's no need for a medical and no time consuming health assessment when you apply.

Cover for life

Our plan provides cover for the whole of your life. If you die within the first two years of starting your plan we will not pay the cash sum, but we will return all the premiums paid. However, if you die as a result of an accident (exclusions and limitations apply), then the full cash sum will be paid instead. Depending on how long you live, the total premiums paid may be greater than the cash sum payable when you die.

"The service I have received from Legal & General has been second to none."
Mrs F. Smith
In response to the service received following a claim for her husband's Life Cover.

Thrilling tribute to Michael Jackson

DIRECT from the West End, the hit show Thriller Live comes to the region this week.

Celebrating the career of Michael Jackson, it brings to life the dancing and distinctive sound of the singer's decades-spanning career.

Hits include Smooth Criminal, Billie

Jean, Blame It On The Boogie and Thriller.

Jackson sold more than 750 million records and had 13 number one singles, with numerous entries in the Guinness Book of Records.

Rather than a straight tribute performance with one impersonator, the show takes the audience on a journey and displays all of Michael Jackson's personas onstage.

It runs until Saturday at Milton Keynes Theatre. To book tickets, call the box office on 0844 871 7652 or visit www.ambassadorickets.com/miltonkeynes.

HE'S A WINNER - Tom Wood is pictured in front of London Bridge with his Aviva Premiership player of the year award, which he received on Tuesday night

PICTURE: Paul Gilham/Getty Images for Aviva

Rewards double

TOM WOOD has been crowned Aviva Premiership Player of the Season.

The Saints and England flanker became the second Saint to win the award in succession after Chris Ashton won the title last season.

And it was double delight for double-chasing Saints as Jim Mallinder was crowned QBE director of rugby of the year at the Aviva Premiership Rugby Awards at Old Billingsgate in London.

Wood fought off competition from team-mates Brian Mujati and Ashton, Saracens' Schalk Brits and Leicester's Thomas Waldrom to win the award, and it comes as a huge boost after being sidelined with a hair-line fracture in his fibula.

The 24-year-old, who was signed from Worcester last summer, said: "It was a massive bonus for the club having us three nominated

"It is a team sport and it is difficult to pick out individuals, but having that kind of recognition shows the club is heading in the right direction.

"I was really proud to be nominated amongst such calibre of player, and to win it is a huge bonus for me."

Wood was man of the match on his debut for Saints against Leicester and has gone from strength to strength, earning his first England cap against Wales and going on to play every game to win the Six Nations.

Injury looks set to rule Wood out of this Saturday's Premiership semi-final against Leicester at Welford Road (ko 3.15pm), but he is still hoping to be back for the Heineken Cup final against Leinster on May 21.

Wood, Soane Tonga'uiha, Mujati, Ashton and Courtney Lawes were all named in the ESPN Dream Team for the season. The five giving Saints the biggest representation out of the Premiership clubs.

Saints booked their semi-final place at Leicester last weekend with a hard-fought 31-24 win over Leeds at Franklin's Gardens, Mallinder's men fighting back from being 24-3 down following the opening 20 minutes.

■ SAINTS' centre Joe Ansbro has been named in Scotland's provisional squad for the IRB Rugby World Cup, which is to be held in New Zealand later this year.

Tozer's a fan of Johnson

BEN TOZER believes Gary Johnson will turn the Cobblers into a force in npower League Two next season, whether he returns to play a part or not.

Tozer played the final game of his loan spell in Saturday's 2-1 win at Morecambe, with his last kick of the campaign being his 20-yard thunderbolt that put Town 2-0 up and effectively sealed the win.

The former Swindon Town man will return to his parent club Newcastle United, where he still has one year left of his contract to run.

There is still a chance that Tozer could be back at Sixfields next season, either as a season-long loan or even permanently, as Johnson has indicated he would be happy to see the defender turned central midfielder resume his career in claret and white.

But regardless of what the future holds for Tozer and whether he turns out for the Cobblers again, the player is convinced that Johnson is the right man to take the Sixfields club forward.

Asked if Johnson is the man to sort the club's form and problems out next season, Tozer said: "Definitely.

"Since he has been in charge we have been averaging something like two goals in every game, so if you are doing that then you should be getting something.

"I think promotion is something the club should be looking out for next season."

Tozer, who has been with the Cobblers since September, admits it was a surprise the team ended up in a relegation dogfight, but felt the hub of the problem was drawing too many games.

"We were one of the best footballing teams in the division," said Tozer. "But we just didn't punish teams and didn't finish them off when we had the chance.

"That caught up with us, and we didn't realise until the last month or so how much it had caught up with us. There were so many games we should have won, and to only win three away games wasn't enough. Even at home we drew too many."
